More Than 300 Pairs of Gloves
Recovered From Pawnshops
Come From Adler's Stock.

Police Lieut. Ware, of the Central office, was in a pawnshop at Third avenue and One Hundred and Third street yesterday afternoon when a very pretty young girl entered and offered to buy five pairs of men's new gloves for

Rails. She was so appreciative in her manner that Ware questioned her, and the confusing statements led to her arrest.

When closely examined at Police Headquarters she broke down and gave a confession involving Thomas O'Neill, a clerk in James Aulley's stove store, who was arrested last week.

John A. Nord, 1000 E. 12th st., who is North Minneapolis, said she was eighteen years old and lived at No. 1650 Madison.

Up to two months ago she said O'Neill were employed in a butler's factory.

O'Neill, a clerk in Aulley's stove store, and began to steal, according to the girl, the very first day.

She said she was very busy and preoccupied, and busied herself in pawing the glove.

She said O'Neill turned over to her 100 pairs of gloves, and she had sold more than three hundred pairs.

YACHT RETURNS CRIPPLED.

A two-masted schooner yacht, with mainmast missing, passed in at Sandy Hook this afternoon.

It is thought to be one of the contestants in the recent New York-Bermuda race.

The victory of Nealon at 29 to 1 in the Suburban to-day at once opened the old question, raised when long shots win, of "Well, what has he ever done?" The "dope" on his horse starts this season:

In his first start, in the Metropolitan Handicap, at one mile, May 3, on a heavy track at Belmont Park, took up 14 pounds and Dugan and Nealon, who plays first base for the Pittsburgh Baseball Club.

Electioneering has back at the start poured a cloud of gloom over the pack's grandstand and lawns, for he was the favorite, at 13 to 5, and carried the public's money. Off well, he might have brought his followers joy instead of sorrow. Blandy was the only entry scratched, and sixteen horses contended—a big Suburban field. The track was fast Dugan and 116 pounds up. Time-1:46 4-6. Closed strong from sixth place.

At a mile and a quarter, June 4, at Belmont Park, took up 113 pounds and Dugan and, after leading most of the distance finished a length behind Philander (109). Flavius (90) was third. Time-2:04 2-5.
